DATED : APRIL 18, 2007.

P.C.:

1. There is a direction issued by this Court to the trial Court to decide the suit within the outer limit fixed by this Court. If the learned trial Judge has any difficulty in disposing of the suit, it is for the learned trial Judge to submit a report for extension of time to this Court. The direction issued by this Court to dispose of a suit is to the trial Court. Therefore, the trial Court cannot direct the parties to apply to this Court for extension of time. It will be open for the concerned learned Judge to submit a report for seeking extension of time to dispose of the suit. Such a prayer cannot be entertained at the instance of the parties. Hence, the Application is rejected.
